WORK EXPERIENCE

SUNY Polytechnic Institute
Bachelor of Science   Utica, NY
Undergraduate Assistant   Sep 2023 – present

- Designing, developing, and testing a web-based infrastructure for a unique programming competition model developed by Dr. Confer to support local, remote, and "after-play" competitions.
- Docker Containerization: Developing a Docker image optimized for running code files, including C++ (cpp) files, submitted on a competition website. The system operates as follows: When a user submits a code file, it initiates a Docker container, transfers the code file to the container, compiles and executes it, and finally, transmits the output back to the webpage.
